Managing Director to Present at Proactive Investors Forum (2 October 2013, Sydney)

New Age Exploration Managing Director, Mr Gary Fietz, will present on the Company's flagship Lochinvar project in the UK at upcoming Proactive Investors "Stars in 2013" investor forum.

The investor forum, which is free to attend, will be held on Wednesday 2nd October 2013, commencing at 5:30PM at the Radisson Blu Hotel, Sydney and is open to all shareholders and investors.

New Age Exploration is currently finalising its initial JORC Resource for the Lochinvar Coking Coal Project in the UK, which is scheduled for release during September. It is expected that the Lochinvar initial JORC Resource statement will be the focus of Mr Fietz's presentation.

Lochinvar is an attractive low ash coking coal project, ideally located to supply domestic UK and Western European steel mills with immediate access to existing rail and port infrastructure.

The event is free to attend but make sure you REGISTER ASAP as the seats are filling quickly. Registrations can be made through Proactive Investors web site (see link below) or by contacting the Company;
