

Target Market Determination

Made by:	New Age Exploration Limited (ACN 004 749 508) of Level 2, 480 Collins St, Melbourne VIC 3000 (Company).
Product:	Options to acquire fully paid ordinary shares in the capital of the Company with an exercise price of $0.012 each and an expiry date of 21 December 2026 (Options).
Effective Date:	5 February 2026.

1. About this document

On 24 October 2025, the Company announced that it had received commitments for a placement of 1,500,000,000 new fully paid ordinary shares in the capital of the Company (Shares) at an issue price of $0.0025 per Share to be issued by the Company (Placement Shares), together with one free attaching Option for every three Placement Shares issued (together, the Placement).

This target market determination (TMD) has been prepared by the Company in relation to the Company's offer to issue 1,000 Options to specific parties on invitation from the Company under a transaction specific prospectus pursuant to section 713 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) dated 5 February 2026 (Prospectus). The Prospectus was issued for the purpose of section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act, to remove any trading restrictions on the sale of Options issued by the Company under the Placement (Offer). A copy of the Prospectus is available on the Company's website, www.nae.net.au.

The Options are being offered under the Prospectus to specific investors by invitation only, so that the Options issued to the Placement investors will be freely tradeable (and the Shares issued on exercise of those Options will also be freely tradeable due to the operation of ASIC Corporations (Sale Offers That Do Not Need Disclosure) Instrument 2016/80). The Company will apply to the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) for official quotation of the Options offered under the Prospectus. Fundraising is not an intention of the Offer. The Options will only be admitted to official quotation by ASX if the conditions for quotation of a new class of securities are satisfied. Failure to obtain official quotation of the Options will not prevent the issue of the Options and will not cause any such issue to be void pursuant to the Corporations Act, as the Offer is not conditional upon official quotation being granted. If official quotation is not granted, the Options issued pursuant to the Offer will not be able to be traded on ASX.

The Offer will be made under the Prospectus. Any recipient of this TMD should carefully read and consider the Prospectus in full and consult their professional adviser if they have any questions regarding the contents of the Prospectus. Any recipient of this TMD who wants to acquire Options pursuant to the Offer will need to complete the application form that will be in, or will accompany, the Prospectus. There is no cooling off period in respect of the issue of the Options. This TMD is not a disclosure document for the purposes of the Corporations Act, and therefore has not been lodged, and does not require lodgement, with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

This TMD does not take into account what you currently have, or what you want and need, for your financial future. It is important for you to consider these matters and read the Prospectus before you make an investment decision. The Company is not licensed to provide financial product advice in relation to the Options.

Unless otherwise defined in this TMD, capitalised terms have the meaning given to them in the Prospectus.

2. Target Market

The table below summarises the overall class of consumers that fall within the target market for Options, based on the product key attributes and the objectives, financial situation and needs that it has been designed to meet.

Factor	Target Market
Investment Objective	The Company expects that an investment in the Options will be suitable to investors who have the right, but not the obligation, to gain exposure to equities in a small cap mining company listed on ASX. Particularly, it will be those specific investors who are offered the Options pursuant to the Offer by the Company under the Prospectus.
Investment Timeframe	The target market of investors will take a short term outlook in relation to their investment in the Company and are in a financial position that is sufficient for them to invest their funds over a year-long period from the issue of the Options to their expiry, should they wish to exercise their Options.
Investment Metrics	While the Company does not have an established eligibility framework for investors based on metrics such as age, expected return or volatility, it is expected that the target market of investors will be able to withstand potentially large fluctuations, and the potential for losses in the value of their investment. The Options offer no guaranteed income or capital protection and also offer no guarantee of whether there will be liquidity to enable trading of the Options or of the Shares which may be issued upon their exercise.
Risks	The Company considers that an investment in the Options is high risk and speculative, such that an investment in the Company is not appropriate for an investor who would not be able to bear a loss of some or all of the investment. Investors should also have a sufficient level of financial literacy and resources (either alone or in conjunction with an appropriate adviser) to understand and appreciate the high risks of investing in Options as an asset class generally and the high risks of investing in the Company.

3. Distribution Conditions

Only specific parties that were extended the Offer on invitation from the Company, may apply for Options under the Prospectus.

A copy of the Prospectus and relevant application form will only be made available to the specific parties by invitation by the Company before they apply for Options.

The Company considers that these distribution conditions will ensure that persons who invest in Options fall within the target market in circumstances where personal advice is not being provided to those persons by the Company.

4. Review Triggers

The Options are only being offered for a limited offer period detailed in the Prospectus, after the conclusion of which the Options will no longer be available for investment by way of issue. It follows that the TMD will only apply in the period between the commencement of the offer of the Options and the issue of the Options shortly after the close of the Offer (Offer Period), after which the TMD will be withdrawn.

To allow the Company to determine whether circumstances exist that indicate this TMD is no longer appropriate to the Offer and should be reviewed, the following review triggers apply for the Offer Period:

- (a) there is a material change to the Options' key attributes that make them no longer consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of consumers in the target market;

- (b) the Company lodges with ASIC a supplementary or replacement prospectus in relation to the Prospectus;
- (c) the occurrence of a significant dealing in Options that is not consistent with this TMD;
- (d) the Company identifies a substantial divergence in how the Options are being distributed and purchased from this TMD;
- (e) ASIC raises concerns with the Company regarding the adequacy of the design or distribution of the Options or this TMD; and
- (f) material changes to the regulatory environment that applies to an investment in the Options.

The Company may also amend this TMD at any time.

5. Review Period

If a review trigger occurs during the Offer Period, the Company will undertake a review of the TMD in light of the review trigger as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any case, within five business days of the review trigger occurring.

The Company will otherwise complete a review of the TMD immediately prior to the issue of Options under the Offer.

Periodic reviews of the TMD will not occur during the Offer Period, noting that the Offer Period is (subject to any decision to extend) less than one month. If the Offer Period is extended for more than one month, the TMD will be reviewed on a monthly basis.
